Art. 4

The Romanian-American University of Bucharest, a higher education institution, legal entity of private law and public utility, part of the national system of education, accredited by law, organizes in the 2020 – 2021 academic year the following bachelor degree study programs taught in English, which have been set up in compliance with the law:

Nr. crt.	School	Domain for bachelor degree studies	Major/ bachelor degree study program	Accredited (A)/ authorized to function provisionally (AP)	Type of studies*	No. of transferable credit points
1.	School of Computer Science for Business Management	Cybernetics, Statistics and Economic Informatics	Computer Science for Economics (in English)	A	FTS	180
2.	School of Domestic and International Business, Banking and Finance	International Economics and Business	International Business (in English)	A	FTS	180

* FTS – full-time studies

Art. 5

- a. Admission to the bachelor degree cycle of academic studies at the Romanian-American University of Bucharest is organized on bachelor degree domains, for the accredited majors/study programs, based on the university methodology, which has been approved by the Senate, according to the legal provisions in effect.
- b. The admission contest for the bachelor degree academic studies may be organized in two sessions, in identical circumstances, before the beginning of the academic year, no later than September 30.
- c. The admission contest for the bachelor degree academic studies for the programs that are taught in English is taken in English.
- d. The calendar for the admission sessions, as well as the forms and tests of the contest are established through the institutional methodology and are made public in agreement with the legal provisions in effect, by being displayed at the university headquarters and on the web page of the institution.

Art. 6

The organization and conducting of the admission contest for the bachelor degree cycle of academic studies lies within the competence of the Admission Central Committee of the Romanian-American University of Bucharest and of the Admission School Committees, named by Rector Decision, which are responsible for the adequate implementation of the current methodology.

Art. 7

In agreement with the legal provisions in effect, the Romanian-American University of Bucharest informs the candidates, by display at the university headquarters and on the web page of the institution, on:

- a. The university admission methodology;
- b. The annual tuition offer, according to the provisions of art. 138 from the Law of National Education no. 1/2011, with its subsequent modifications and amendments;
- c. The terms and documents that are necessary for the registration, including the conditions and procedure for the admission of foreign students and the recognition of the diplomas acquired abroad, in compliance with the law;
- d. The set calendar for the admission sessions;
- e. The conducting of the contest and the tests;
- f. Facilities and special conditions (including for students with disabilities);
- g. Registration fees for organizing and conducting the admission;
- h. Other useful information for the candidates.

Art. 8

Admission to the bachelor degree study programs taught in English at the Romanian-American University of Bucharest for the 2020 – 2021 academic year is based on a contest checking the candidates' level of knowledge of English, taking into account the bacalaureate average, which represents 50% of the admission grade.

Art. 9

The admission contest for the 2020 – 2021 academic year is organized in July 2020, according to the legal provisions in effect. In case there are any vacant positions left, an admission session will be held under the same conditions in September 2020.

Art. 10

- a. Only the students who have graduated from high school, with a bacalaureate diploma obtained in Romania or an equivalent, irrespective of the year of graduation, have the right to participate in the admission contest for the bachelor degree academic studies.
- b. Citizens of the European Union member states and of the states belonging to the European Economic Space and to the Swiss Confederation may participate in the admission under the same conditions stipulated by the law for Romanian citizens, including as far as the tuition fees are concerned.
- c. The recognition of the studies pursued by citizens of other member states of the European Union, of states belonging to the European Economic Space and to the Swiss Confederation, or by Romanian citizens abroad or in foreign education institutions located on Romanian territory falls within the area of competence of the specialized body in Ministry of Education and Research (additional information: <http://cnred.edu.ro>)
- d. The admission of Romanians from everywhere is based on the methodologies especially drafted by the Ministry of Education and Research.
- e. The admission of citizens from non-European Union states is based on the methodologies especially drafted by the Ministry of Education and Research.

Art. 11

- a. The university has adopted, in compliance with the law, a set of measures regarding the equality of opportunity for people with disabilities, ensuring, where necessary, additional support customized for the needs of adults with disabilities, supporting their access inside the institution.
- b. According to the law, higher education institutions establish, within their own methodologies, special facilities or conditions regarding the admission to bachelor degree study programs of candidates that have received, during high school, distinctions in school Olympics and/or other national or international competitions.
- c. Consequently, at the Romanian-American University of Bucharest, graduates of high schools where the language of teaching is English or who have obtained the average 10 in English at the baccalaureate examination, the 1st, 2nd and 3rd prizes, special mentions and awards at national and international school English Olympics (recognized by the Ministry of Education and Research), as well as graduates of bachelor degree programs with an English language profile, or other profile but taught in English at accredited/authorized higher education institutions who wish to register for a second bachelor degree academic study program are admitted without taking an admission examination. International Olympic students who have obtained the average 10 (ten) at the baccalaureate examination in English are declared admitted with a 10 (ten). Those who have obtained prizes or mentions at national school Olympics in English may be admitted, having their mark for the Exam test equaled with a 10 (ten). Graduates who have a bachelor degree diploma who register for a second bachelor degree program may be admitted based on the equivalence of the admission average with the general average of the years of undergraduate studies.
- d. Candidates who present certificates issued by the Ministry of Education and Research or acknowledged by it, as well as certificates of English recognized internationally may be admitted based on them, the grade from the certificate or its equivalent representing the grade for the Exam test.
- e. Candidates who have an international certificate of English at an upper-intermediate or advanced level, as well as those who have studied exclusively in English and those whose official language is English may be admitted based on the assessment performed as a result of an online interview, through audio-video conference (for instance, Skype), having their grade equaled for the Exam test according to the equivalence grid.

Art. 12

- a. Romanian citizens, those of European Union member states, of states belonging to the European Economic Space and the Swiss Confederation may be admitted and registered as students of at most two study programs simultaneously, irrespective of the cycle of studies and the education institutions providing them, according to the law. Candidates from Other States may be admitted to only one study program, as they can receive only one Acceptance Letter from the Ministry of Education and Research.
- b. Romanian candidates, those from European Union member states, from states belonging to the European Economic Space and the Swiss Confederation may register for more schools/majors/study programs, under the following conditions:
 - They submit a registration dossier for every school whose study program/major they opt for;
 - They pay the contest registration fee for every option that they make;
 - They take only one Exam test (in English) for all the schools/study programs that they have registered for.

Art. 13

The admission contest registration fee is 50 EURO.

Art. 14

The subject for the contest is English.

Art. 15

The content of the online tests for the assessment of the level of linguistic competence corresponds to the international best practices in the field.

Art. 16

The Central Admission Committee will make the information regarding the conducting of the admission contest and its results public by displaying it at the University headquarters and on the website page, under the assigned heading.

Art. 22

The Central Committee and the Technical Committee are set up at University level, through decision of the University Rector, with approval of the University Senate, having attributes delegated by the Senate, under the law.

Art. 23

The admission committee for each School, the surveillance committees and the grading committees are set through decision of the Rector, with approval of the University Senate, at the proposal of School Councils.

Art. 24

a. The admission committee for each School consists of:

- the Chairman (School dean);
- 2- 5 members;
- a Secretary.

b. The admission committee is also in charge with solving any potential problems related to the results of the online placement test (if applicable).

c. The committee secretary has the sole attribution of managing documents.

d. Under the law, the committee members may not have, with the candidates or among themselves, any relation of spouses, in-laws or relatives up to the third degree.

Art. 25

The responsibilities of the committees constituted for the organization and unfolding of the bachelor degree admission examination, at the Romanian-American University, represents an annex to the present methodology (annex 2).

Art. 26

The committees constituted at faculty level will communicate their final results, to the Central Admission Examination Committee, no later than 24 hours from the ending of the admission examination.

Art. 27

The admission examination is made up of an interview and an online placement test (if applicable), both in English. The date of the interview will be set at the time of the application, which can coincide with the date of application, or it can be scheduled at a later date. The interview is eliminatory offering access to the written test, as those rejected will not have the possibility to continue the admission procedure. The admission examination schedule will be made public on the 18th of July 2020 on the university's web page, at the www.rau.ro address, dedicated section. Candidates have the obligation to check the correctness of the data on the lists and to inform the committees of any inconsistencies with real data. Foreign candidates have the possibility for an online interview and English language examination, via the audio-video conference technical means (e.g. Skype).

Art. 28

The applicability for the academic year 2020-2021 is suspended.

Art.29

The admission examination takes place online:

- a. The candidate will have the interview in English. In case he/ she is declared admitted, can attend the written test.
- b. The representative of the admission committee gets in contact with the candidate, via specific communication platforms (Skype), offering candidates the log in data and necessary instructions for the written test.
- c. The test lasts 80 minutes, from the moment when the candidate accesses the test.
- d. The test is made up of 45 questions, structured in two parts: grammar and vocabulary/ listening test.
- e. Candidates have the obligation to finish the test in 80 minutes, otherwise being considered invalid.
- f. After the end of the examination, the committee must communicate the results in maximum 2 days.

Art. 30

The attempted fraud (identity fraud, cheating, discussions with other candidates, etc.) will be immediately sanctioned, and candidates will be eliminated from competition/ examination, without any possibility to enroll in an admission examination at the Romanian-American University, in Bucharest.

Art. 31

The applicability for the academic year 2020-2021 is suspended.

Art.32

- a. The average for admission is calculated based on the mark in the Exam test or equivalent (50%) and the average of the baccalaureate (50%).
- b. The level of English cannot be lower than B1-B2.
- c. The average for admission cannot be lower than 5 (five), according to the law.
- d. If a grade lower than 5 (five) is obtained, the candidate is declared rejected.
- e. The admission average is calculated to two decimal places, as an integer number.

f. The average for admission is valid for the classification order only at the Romanian-American University in Bucharest, on the bachelor program chosen by the candidates, according to the present methodology.

Art. 33

The admission is limited to the numbers approved by the Senate of the university, according to the legal provisions in force, for each faculty, bachelor degree/ major and form of studies, in the decreasing order of the admission average. In the situation in which, on the final position, there are more students with the same average, they will be delimited according to the following criteria, in the below mentioned order:

1. The mark on the admission examination or equivalent;
2. Average of the Bacalaureate;
3. Average of the marks in English, during the high school years.

Art. 34

For the bachelor degree programs, where the number of accepted candidates is smaller than the available number of seats, according to the decision of the university's Senate, the respective program will not be organized during the 2020-2021 academic year, and the candidates will have the possibility to opt for a different program (annex 3).

Art. 35

a. The list with the admitted candidates will be made available in no more than 2 days form the date of the examination, at the headquarters of the Romanian-American University, in Bucharest, 1B, Expoziției Avenue, sector 1 and on the institutional web page, dedicated section.

b. The results will be made available gradually, generating the following types of lists:

- Final lists – with the hierarchy of the candidates, generated after the resolution of complaints, comprising the final and indisputable results.
- List of candidates rejected, if appropriate.

Art. 36

Any appeal with regard to the results of the bachelor degree admission examination will be submitted to the university's registry office through the rectorat@rau.ro email address, in no more than 24 hours from the date of the publication of results and will be resolved by the Faculty admissions board, within 24 hours.
