METHODOLOGY FOR ORGANIZING AND CONDUCTING THE ADMISSION TO THE MASTER DEGREE PROGRAMS IN ENGLISH
FOR THE ACADEMIC YEAR 2023-2024

CHAPTER I

GENERAL PROVISIONS

Art. 1

The Romanian - American University in Bucharest elaborates and enforces its Methodology/Regulation for Organizing and Conducting the Admission to Master Degree Programs, in line with its mission, institutional strategy, and the requirements of the labor market, according to the law.

Art. 2

Based on university autonomy and assuming public accountability, the Romanian - American University in Bucharest organizes an Admission Contest for each program and cycle of academic studies to test knowledge and cognitive skills, according to the legal provisions in force.

Art. 3

The organization and conduct of the Admission Contest for the Master Degree Programs in English at the Romanian-American University in Bucharest is based on the following normative acts:

- ✓ The Law of National Education no. 1/2011, as subsequently amended and supplemented;
- ✓ The Law no. 288/2004 on the organization of academic studies, as subsequently amended and supplemented;
- ✓ The Government Decision (G.D.) no. 404/2006 on organizing and conducting Master degree Programs;
- ✓ The Law no. 448/2006 on the protection and promotion of the rights of disabled persons, republished, as subsequently amended and supplemented;
- ✓ The Order of the Minister of Education and Research (OMEC) no. 4501/2003 on the approval of the Methodological Norms for the enrollment of foreign citizens, foreign citizens of Romanian ethnic origin and of the Romanian citizens residing abroad in accredited private higher education institutions from Romania;
- ✓ The Order of the Minister of Education, Research, Youth and Sports (OMECTS) no. 4022/2008 concerning the approval of the Regulations for organizing and functioning of the National Center for Equivalence and Recognition of Diplomas and the Methodology for Equivalence and Recognition of Scientific Diplomas, Certificates and Titles.

- ✓ The Order of the Minister of Education no. 3102/2022 on the approval of the Methodology for organizing the admission to the bachelor, master and doctoral degree programs, as subsequently amended and supplemented;
- ✓ The Order of the Minister of Education, Research, Youth and Sports (OMECTS) no. 3473/2017 on the admission to studies and tuition of third-country citizens and the Methodology for enforcing the Minister's Order, as subsequently amended and supplemented;
- ✓ The Government Decision (G.D.) no 58/2020 on taking measures for the proper functioning of the education system;
- ✓ The Government Decision no.356/2023 for the approval of accredited fields and master's degree programs and the maximum number of students who can be enrolled in the academic year 2023-2024.

Art. 4

As a higher education institution and a legal entity of public utility, governed by the private law, part of the national education system, accredited by law, The Romanian-American University organizes for the academic year 2023 – 2024 the following accredited Master Degree Programs in English:

Art. 5

- a. Master degree programs ensure an in-depth research in the domain of a bachelor degree program or in a close domain, the acquisition of complementary competencies in other domains, and the development of scientific research skills.
- b. Only graduates with a Bachelor degree issued in Romania or an equivalent, regardless of the graduation year of the Bachelor program, have the right to participate in the Admission Contest for the Master Degree Programs.
- c. Higher education institutions organize admission contests for each cycle of academic studies, according to the law.
- d. The Admission Contest for Master Degree Programs is organized for the accredited Master Programs within the higher education institution, according to the legal provisions in force.
- e. The Admission Contest may be organized, usually, in two sessions, under the same conditions, before the beginning of the academic year, but not later than 30 September.
- f. Candidates entering the Admission Contest for Master Degree Programs in English will take an examination in English.
- g. The organization and conduct of the admission contest for the Master Degree Programs at the Romanian-American University in Bucharest is in accordance with the Methodology approved by the Senate, in compliance with the legislation in force.

Art. 6

In accordance with the legal provisions in force, the Romanian-American University of Bucharest informs the candidates by displaying all the necessary information at the headquarters of the institution and on the RAU website:

- a. Its Admission Methodology;

- b. The annual tuition offer, according to the provisions of art.138 of the National Education Law no. 1/2011, as subsequently amended and supplemented¹;
- c. The requirements and documents needed for registration, as well as the requirements and procedure for the recognition of diplomas issued by higher education institutions abroad, according to the law;
- d. The timeframes established for the admission sessions;
- e. The full process of the contest and its tests;
- f. The facilities or special conditions (also for disabled people);
- g. The registration fees for organizing and conducting the Admission Contest;
- h. Other useful information.

Art. 7

The organization and conduct of the Admission Contest is under the competence of the Central Admission Committee of the Romanian American University in Bucharest and of the School Admission Committees, appointed by Rector's Decision, which are responsible for the correct application of the present methodology.

Art. 8

The admission contest for the academic year 2023 - 2024 is organized in July 2023. For the remaining study places, another admission contest will be organized, under the same conditions, in September 2023, according to the calendar-specific annex.

Art. 9

Graduates with a bachelor degree in the same domain or in any domain may register for the Admission Contest.

Art. 10

- a. The Admission Contest must be attended by graduates with a bachelor degree or an equivalent of long-term academic studies, according to the Law of Education no. 84/1995, republished, with the subsequent modifications and completions, graduates with a bachelor degree in the cycle of bachelor degree programs according to the Law no.288/2004 on the organization of university studies, with the subsequent modifications and completions, as well as the graduates of studies completed abroad and recognized by the specialized Department within the Ministry of Education.

¹The Law no. 84/1995 was abrogated by art. 361, paragraph (2) of the Law of National Education no. 1/2011

- b. Citizens of the Member States of the European Union, of the countries belonging to the European Economic Area and of the Swiss Confederation may participate in the Admission Contest under the same conditions stipulated by the law for the Romanian citizens, also regarding the tuition fees;
- c. Recognition of degrees of citizens from other Member States of the European Union, States belonging to the European Economic Area and the Swiss Confederation or degrees of Romanian citizens issued by institutions abroad or by foreign educational institutions located in Romania is the responsibility of the specialized Department within the Ministry of Education (for additional information: <http://www.cnred.edu.ro>).
- d. Admission of Romanians from everywhere is based on the Methodologies elaborated by the Ministry of Education.
- e. Admission of third-country nationals – outside the European Union – is based on the Methodologies elaborated by the Ministry of Education.
- f. The Romanian-American University has adopted, in accordance with the law, measures on equal opportunities for people with disabilities, providing, where necessary, additional support adapted to the needs of adults with disabilities, thus facilitating their access to education.

Art. 11

A candidate may be admitted and enrolled in at most two study programs simultaneously, regardless of the cycle of studies and the educational institutions which offer them, according to the law. Third-country candidates may be admitted to a single study program because they receive only a single Letter of Acceptance from the Ministry of Education.

Art. 12

a. The admission to the Master Degree Programs at the Romanian-American University in Bucharest, during the academic year 2023 – 2024, is done by competition, through a written examination based on a written essay/project which must be elaborated according to the displayed specialized themes, taking into account the average of the bachelor examination, according to the procedure specific to each Master Degree Program, by final averages in descending order, within the limits of available places.

b. The essay/project must be drafted in English, according to the specialized themes and the guidelines displayed on the RAU website for each Master Degree Program;

c. Admission to Master Degree Programs in English is subject to an eliminatory test – an interview in English and the English language assessment (or by presenting an international upper-intermediate or advanced Certificate of English or evidence/degrees attesting the completion of previous studies entirely in English, and also if the official language is English);

Art. 13

The registration fee for the admission exam is 100 EUR.

Art. 14

The tuition fees are established for each Master Degree Program and all the necessary information about them is displayed on the website.

Art. 15

If the minimum number of study places established to ensure the sustainability of the Master Degree Programs is not allocated, according to the University Senate's decision, the respective Master Programs will not be organized in the academic year 2023 – 2024; nevertheless, the admitted candidates will have the right to opt for another Master Program belonging to the same domain or, as the case may be, to opt for a Master Program within the same fundamental field of sciences – Economic Sciences – within the limits of available places (Annex 4).

CHAPTER III

ORGANIZATION AND IMPLEMENTATION OF THE ADMISSION

Art. 19

For the organization and fulfillment of the admission for the master degree programs at quality standards, within the Romanian-American University of Bucharest, the following committees are set up, according to the law:

- a. Central Commission
- b. School Master's Commission
- c. Specialized Commission
- d. Technical Commission

Art. 20

a. The Central Commission and the Technical Commission are established at the University level by the decision of the Rector, with the approval of the University Senate, having delegated powers, according to the law.

b. The School Master's Commission is established by the decision of the Rector, with the approval of the University Senate, at the proposal of the School Councils.

c. The Specialized Commissions are established by the decision of the Rector, with the approval of the University Senate, at the proposal of the specialized departments and School Councils.

d. The powers of the commissions set up for the organization and fulfillment of the admission exam for the master degree programs at the Romanian-American University in Bucharest, are an annex to this methodology (Annex 3).

e. According to the law, the members of the established commissions cannot be with the ones evaluated or between them in a relationship of spouses, in-laws and relatives up to 3rd degree inclusively.

Art. 21

a. The School Master's Commission consists of:

- President (Dean of the faculty)
- 2 to 5 members
- Secretary

b. The School Master's Commission has the right to solve potential complaints about the results of the evaluation.

c. The secretary of the School Master's Commission has only the tasks of document management.

Art. 22

a. Specialized Commissions (for evaluating essays/projects) are organized per major/study programs. These consist of:

- president;
- 2 members of specialized teaching staff, with the teaching degree of at least Ph.D. lecturer;
- Secretary.

b. The secretary of the Specialized Commission has no right to grade essays/ projects.

c. The secretary of the Specialized Commission must have at least the teaching degree of university assistant and has only the tasks of document management.

Art. 23

The Specialized committees of the schools organizing the master degree programs evaluate the essays/projects on the basis of the following evaluation criteria:

- Scientific substantiation of the topic (40%)
- Originality (30%)
- Adherence to the specific themes of elaboration, graphic design and graphics, according to the procedure specific to each master degree program (10%).
- Consistency in presentation (20%).

Art. 24

a. Each member of the Specialized Commission gives a grade from 1-10 – round number, the final grade resulting from their average, provided that between the grades there is not a difference of more than two points. If, by way of exception, there is a difference of more than two points between the grades awarded by the members of the Specialized Commission, the chairperson of the commission will ask in writing the School Master's Commission to delegate the competence to one of its members to reassess the essay/project and harmonize the scientific arguments of the members of the Specialized Commission.

b. The deliberation of the commissions on determining the results of the admission examination is not public, according to the law.

c. If the members of the Specialized Commission find and prove the plagiarism of the essay/project, they grade it with 1 (one), the candidate enrolled in the admission exam is declared rejected, is held accountable for false statement and loses the right to enroll in the study programs organized within the Romanian-American University in Bucharest, according to the law.

Art. 25

a. The admission exam is an interview in English, an English language exam and the evaluation of the essay in English.

b. Foreign candidates have the opportunity to give the online interview and English exam through the technical means of online conferencing (e.g. Skype).

c. If the student has an international certificate of English with the upper-intermediate or advanced level or if previous studies were conducted entirely in English or if the official language of the country of origin is English, he does not need to take exams of English.

d. The interview in English is decisive for attending the admission exam, the rejected candidates being unable to continue the process.

e. In the case of candidates who pass the elimination test (interview and English exam), the admission average is calculated taking into account the essay grade given by the Specialized Commission and the average of the Bachelor degree exam, in a proportion specific to the master degree program for which the candidate has opted.

f. The admission average is calculated with two decimals, without rounding.

g. The minimum admission average is specific to each master degree program, but cannot be less than 6 (six), according to the law.

h. The admission average is valid for the classification order only at the Romanian-American University of Bucharest, in accordance with the present methodology, according to the law.

Art. 26

a. The admission is made according to the tuition number approved by the University Senate, according to the law, for each master degree program, in descending order of the average admission.

b. If, in the admission classification, there are several candidates who have obtained the same average, they will be graded according to the grade for the essay/project evaluation, in terms of scientific substantiation and originality.

Art. 27

Candidates declared "rejected" to a master degree program may be declared "admitted" by redistribution, on the remaining available places, in another master's program, belonging to the same field of study or, as the case may be, in a master degree program within the same fundamental field of sciences - Economic Sciences - only if they meet the specific requirements of the respective program related to the minimum admission average (Annex 4).

Art. 28

The commissions set up at the faculty level will communicate to the Central Commission, within 24 hours after the admission examination, the final results of the admission exam.

Art. 29

a. The final results of the admission exam are communicated within 4 calendar days from the date of the admission exam, at the headquarters of the University from Bucharest, 1B Expozitiei Blvd., sector 1, and on the University's web page, in the dedicated section.

b. The results of the admission exam are posted in stages, generating at least the following types of lists:

- Provisional lists - with hierarchy of candidates, generated after admission;
- Final lists – with the hierarchy of the candidates, generated after the resolution of complaints, comprising the final and indisputable results.

- List of candidates rejected, if appropriate.

Art. 30

a. Any complaints about the results of the admission exam are submitted to Registry of the University within 24 hours from the date of communicating the results and will be solved by the School Master's Commission within a maximum of 48 hours without the candidates' access to the essay/project re-evaluation.

b. The grade given by the Commission is final, according to the law.

c. Disagreements based on the lack of knowledge of the admission methodology are not admitted.

d. Once the resolution and response time (through communication) has expired, the result of the admission exam is final and can no longer be changed.

Art. 31

Validation of the change in the initial score given to an essay/project by the School Master's Commission will entail recalculating the admission average of the candidate and moving him into the appropriate position in the general hierarchy of candidates, in descending order of the averages, with all the related consequences. Applying this provision will in no way affect the situation of the initially admitted candidates.

CHAPTER IV

ENROLLMENT OF ADMITTED CANDIDATES

IN THE FIRST YEAR OF STUDIES

Art. 32

a. According to the law, after the appeals have been solved, the admitted candidates are enrolled.

b. Candidates declared admitted are required to enroll in the first year of study within 5 calendar days from the communication of the final results, except for the foreign citizens, who will enroll after receiving the study visa and arriving in Romania.

c. Successful candidates, who do not enroll within the set deadline (5 calendar days after the final results are communicated), may lose their place obtained in the exam. Under these conditions, the unoccupied places will be taken by the candidates declared rejected who obtained the required level, in the decreasing order of their final admission averages and up to the limit of the published tuition numbers.

Art. 33

For enrollment in the first year of study, candidates declared admitted must:

- Fill in the "Application for enrollment in the first year of study, academic year 2023 - 2024" (institutional form, Annex 5);

- Sign the "Study Contract" (Annex 6) valid for the duration of the master degree studies (2 years for the programs organized in the economic field). The study contract is concluded between the enrolled students and the Rector of the University, as the legal representative of the University, according to the law; after signing by the enrolling students, it will be scanned/photocopied and sent at the following e-mail address: international@rau.ro;
- Fully pay annual fee of studies.

Art. 34

a. The enrollment is done personally, the enrollment application and the study contract are signed by the candidate declared admitted only after paying the study fee.

b. After enrollment, the final lists are generated and posted with the candidates declared admitted and enrolled.

Art. 35

The enrollment of the candidates declared admitted after the admission exam is made by the Decision of the Rector of the University. After enrollment approval, students are registered in the Single Register (RMU) with the unique number valid for the whole schooling period at the specialization/specializations/program/study programs where they were admitted.

Art. 36

Candidates declared rejected or those who drop out can take their document files only in person in 48 hours from the submission of the application, based on their identity documents, without paying any fees.

Art. 37

a. Students - citizens of Member States of the European Union, the states belonging to the European Economic Area and the Swiss Confederation, citizens of Romanian ethnic origin and Romanian citizens domiciled abroad and/or who graduated high schools abroad can be admitted in the first year by exam only after their studies are recognized by the specialized departments from the Ministry of Education.

b. For other citizens but those from point (a) above, the Study Acceptance Letter issued by the Ministry of Education, according to the law, is necessary and mandatory for the enrollment for studies. The study fees for these students are stipulated in the Study Contract according to the methodology specific to each category of foreign students, according to the law.

c. Foreign citizens, others than those under point (a) above, must have a study visa or study residence permit, issued by the Romanian authorities, in order to enroll for studies. Exception are the citizens for states that enjoy a derogation in this respect and the citizens who have a long term residence permit, respectively a labor permit for the entire duration of studies.

CHAPTER V

FINAL PROVISIONS

Art. 38

The management of the Romanian-American University and of the schools undertake full responsibility for organizing and fulfilling the admission exam in the Master's programs, according to the law.

Art. 39

In exceptional circumstances, with the approval of the Board of Directors, the Rector may decide to waive the registration fee for certain categories of candidates.

Art. 40

Until the decision for the enrollment in the first year of studies is issued, the candidates declared admitted cannot receive certificates proving the quality of student/master's student.

Art. 41

The enrollment in the admission exam confirms the full acceptance by candidates of the provisions of the present methodology.

Art. 42

During university studies, students/master's students must know and abide by the University Charter, its internal normative documents, regulations, methodologies and procedures approved by the University Senate, according to the law.

Art. 43

On the approval of this methodology by the University Senate, all prior regulations on the organization and fulfillment of the admission exams in the master's programs in English, are abrogated.

Art. 44

Deans, Chief Secretary of the Romanian - American University and school secretary chiefs will implement the provisions of this methodology, being responsible for its implementation.

This Methodology, approved by the Senate of the Romanian-American University in its sessions of December 21, 2022 and updated in May 2023.

RECTOR,
Professor Costel NEGRICEA, PhD

PRESIDENT OF THE SENATE,
Professor Ovidiu FOLCUȚ, PhD
