EQUAL TREATMENT

The principle of equal treatment is a fundamental right guaranteed to all students.

- Non-Discrimination: Any form of direct or indirect discrimination, harassment, or differential treatment based on nationality, ethnicity, gender, religion, or sexual orientation is strictly prohibited.
- Students as Dialogue Partners: Students are officially recognised as partners in dialogue within the academic community and benefit from a student-centred approach to education that addresses their individual learning needs.
- Equal Access to Support Services: All students enjoy equal access to career counselling, psychological support, medical assistance, and university library resources.
- Gender Equality Strategy: The University implements a dedicated Gender Equality Plan to ensure fair representation and equal opportunities at all levels of study.

All incoming students are exempt from tuition, application, enrolment, examination, laboratory and library fees. No additional academic fees are charged during their mobility at Romanian-American University.

The Red Button

- The Red Button is a dedicated mechanism for students and academic staff within the RAU community, designed to enable the reporting of any situation, concern, or behavior that requires attention, intervention, or improvement, in a clear, secure, and, if preferred, anonymous manner.
- Through this digital tool, reports are submitted directly to the Rector's Office for review and resolution. Regardless of the circumstances, the Red Button serves as a direct call for positive change—a communication channel that transforms feedback into constructive action and reinforces the ethical values of the educational environment.
- The Red Button website can be accessible here:

Health Insurance & Coverage

- All incoming students must ensure they have valid health insurance coverage for the entire duration of their mobility in Romania. Proof of health insurance may be required before or upon arrival.
- EU/EEA students:
- Students covered by the public healthcare system of an EU/EEA country, Switzerland or another eligible country are advised to obtain a European Health Insurance Card (EHIC) before travelling.
- Alternatively, students may arrange valid private health insurance covering their stay in Romania.

Funded by the European Union

Health Insurance & Coverage

- Non-EU/EEA students:
- Students must arrange valid health insurance before travelling to Romania.
- Private health insurance is recommended, particularly if the student's existing insurance does not provide adequate coverage in Romania or does not meet the applicable requirements for their visa or residence permit.
- Important information:
- Make sure your insurance policy is valid from the first day of your mobility until your departure from Romania.
- The EHIC covers medically necessary, state-provided healthcare during a temporary stay but does not cover private medical services, medical repatriation or other travel-related risks.
- We recommend checking the coverage, validity period and geographical scope of your insurance policy before travelling.
- Useful link: European Health Insurance Card (EHIC) – European Commission
- For traineeships (SMT), students must also have:
- Accident Insurance: Covering accidents occurring during their professional activities.
- Third-Party Liability Insurance: Covering damages caused by the student during their traineeship.
