

Romanian-American University

School of Domestic and International Tourism Economics

Company/Institution – Internship host:

Address:

Registration no. ____ / Date: ____

INTERNSHIP AGREEMENT

Between

The Romanian-American University, School of Domestic and International Tourism Economics, having its headquarters in Bucharest, 1B Expoziției Bd. 012101, sector 1, represented by Camelia-Monica GHEORGHE, PhD Lecturer, as Dean, herein after referred to as the organizer of internship

and

_____, having its headquarters in _____,
str. _____, no. _____, county/sector _____,
represented by _____, as _____, herein after referred to as internship host.

This internship agreement has been concluded and the following clauses have been established:

Art.1. The parties agree to cooperate during the internship period of _____ – _____, in order to carry out the specialized internship activities for _____, student in the _____ academic year, group _____, enrolled in the master program _____.

Art.2. The organizer has the following obligations:

a. To elaborate the syllabus, detailing the contents and objective of the specialized internship;

- b. To inform the student of the obligation to maintain the confidentiality of the data and information to which he/she has access within the host institution, both during the validity of this agreement and during the period mentioned in the internal regulations of the practice base, after its cessation.
- c. Organize the student's assessment by colloquium.

Art.3. The host institution has the following obligations:

- a. To instruct the student on the norms of labor protection and other norms specific to the activities that he/she will carry out;
- b. To ensure the development of the specialized practice according to the schedule agreed, in advance, between the parties;
- c. To issue to the student, under signature and stamp, a document from which to result the number of hours performed, the punctuality, the discipline, the degree of acquisition of the practical knowledge and the proposed grade.

This agreement has been concluded on _____, in two copies, one for each party.

Representative of the organizer

Camelia-Monica GEORGHE,
Dean

Representative of the host institution