The master program will be finalized with an examination organized in accordance with the methodology approved annually by the Senate of the University, according to the law.

CHAPTER II

Art.10.

The structure of the academic year includes inter-semester, Christmas and Easter holidays.

CHAPTER III

CREDIT TRANSFER SYSTEM

Art. 11

The Romanian-American University applies the European Credit Transfer System (ECTS), in compliance with the legal provisions in force, in order to promote the transfer of credit points between the University schools/majors, as well as between the Romanian-American University and other higher education institutions in Romania and abroad, accredited or authorized to operate temporarily.

Art. 12

The European Credit Transfer System is applied both in keeping track of the professional accomplishments of the Romanian-American University undergraduates enrolled in all forms of studies, as well as in operating the transfer of professional results obtained as a consequence of attending and passing the evaluations of various subjects included in the curricula of other national and foreign universities or of other schools within the University.

Art. 13

The credit or number of credit points represents a score associated with each subject (compulsory, elective, facultative) proportional to the workload needed by the student to get a pass for a subject, including both regular activities (courses, seminars, laboratories etc.), and individual study (essays, projects, papers etc.). In order to assess the number of credit points for each subject, it will be considered that 1 credit point (1 ECTS) = 25 hours (workload).

Art. 14

Credit points are granted in compliance with the international academic practice and the methodology of the European Credit Transfer System, according to which 60 credit points represent the equivalent of the average workload corresponding to an academic year, and 30 ECTS credit points represent a semester of study in the higher education system.

Art. 15

Students can be awarded a number of credit points larger than the one allocated to a specific major, in accordance with the respective curriculum approved by the Senate, if they attend and pass the facultatives included in the curriculum of each semester/ year of study,-or through the recognition of the ECTS credit points accumulated during mobility programs.

Art. 16

Credit points are expressed as strictly positive integers. For a given subject, no partial credit points may be granted for its activity components.

Art. 17

The number of credit points accumulated by a student for achieving certain learning outcomes of the compulsory and elective subjects included in the curriculum, is a mandatory condition for passing into the subsequent year of study or, respectively, for being awarded the graduate title.

Art. 18

Credit points are called transferable to the extent to which they are acknowledged for a period of study for which certain learning outcomes have been achieved and assessed as a pass for the respective student previously in the University, or in another higher education institution from the country or from abroad, according to the law.

Art. 19

The credit point is the basic unit for the acknowledgement of curriculum subjects or programs. A subject can be acknowledged through the analysis of the content of the syllabus, of the learning outcomes that represent a pass, and through a comparison of the credit points awarded (demonstrated with the official transcripts) with those of the institution acknowledging them. Credit points associated with one subject may be fully or partially transferred.

Art. 20

(1) The credit points for the subjects can be transferred to the Romanian-American University from other higher education institutions in Romania or from abroad, accredited or authorized to operate temporarily, according to the law.

(2) Acknowledgement of credit points can be done in case:

- Temporary or permanent academic mobilities;

- Re-enrollment, resumption of studies – after a suspension of studies or extension of studies – and enrollment in supplementary year.
- In the event of a request by graduates for whom compensatory measures have been established, who will follow the specific internal procedure.

Art. 21 Acknowledgement of credit points

(1) If the number of credit points obtained initially according to the ECTS (or a compatible one), according to the transcripts, is lower than the one stipulated in the curriculum of the specialization/ study program of the acknowledging school, the course tutor indicates additional chapters to be learnt, for the respective subject, according to the syllabus, for which further examinations for the differing credit points will be performed.

(2) For the subjects that are not mentioned in the transcripts, but which are stipulated by the curriculum of the specialization/ study program of the acknowledging school, the student will take equivalence examinations.

(3) If the number of credits points obtained exceeds the one stipulated in the curriculum of the specialization/ study program of the acknowledging school, the surplus is not acknowledged with the credit points of other subjects.

(4) If a subject is mentioned as a pass with the “admitted” qualification in the transcripts, it will be acknowledged with the grade 5 (five).

(5) The acknowledgement of credit points and the scheduling of equivalence examinations and the examinations for the differing credit points fall under the attributions of the Heads of departments, upon consulting the course tutors.

(6) The responsibility of acknowledging the credit points or of scheduling equivalence examinations and examinations for differing credit points belongs exclusively to the Heads of departments and to the school management.

(7) In the case of international mobilities, the responsibility of the acknowledgments and of the scheduling of equivalence examinations jointly belongs to the International Relations Department and the Dean/ Vice-Dean of the School.

(8) The grades for the acknowledgements are registered in the transcript by the Head of the Department or the Dean.

(9) The grades obtained by students in the equivalence examinations and the examinations for differing credit points are registered in the transcript by the course tutor, according to the specific procedure. The final grade corresponding to a differing credit points assessment is calculated and registered according to the specific procedure.

(10) The transcript specification of the results of the acknowledged assessments or of the final grade in the case of differing credit points assessments made by the Head of Department or Dean, under signature, is the only exception to the rule which stipulates that the course tutor has to sign the transcript.

Art. 22

(1) The transfer of credit points is compulsory in the case of temporary international mobilities for which there are prior contracts of acceptance between the graduates and the said school for ERASMUS mobilities or, as the case may be, interinstitutional agreements for mobilities carried out according to MO 4262/2024. A maximum of 60 credit points, for the “Economic Sciences” or “Sports and Physical Education Science” master programs, and a maximum 30 credit points, for the “Legal Sciences” master programs, can be acknowledged for the entire period of studies (cycle of studies).

(2) The acknowledgement of credit points obtained by the student who benefited from such mobilities is carried out by the school management, by accepting the subject bundle studied and passed by the student at the host university integrally, based on the documents submitted by the International Relations Department.

(3) The specific procedure is detailed in the “Regulations regarding Student Mobilities” approved by the University Senate under the law.

Art. 23

The assessment results and implicitly the credit points for the respective subjects cannot be acknowledged between the cycles of higher-education qualifications.

CHAPTER IV CURRICULA

Art. 24

The contents of the master programs are defined in the curricula, for a full cycle of studies, according to the law.

Art. 25

(1) The curricula include synthesis subjects and complementary subjects grouped, in turn, as compulsory, elective and optional subjects.

(2) The subjects from the curricula follow a logical succession. A subject is taught for a semester only and is completed with an evaluation.

(3) The average load ratio in the curriculum is of 12-20 hours/week.

Art. 26

(1) The optional subjects, irrespective of the semester when the curriculum provides their teaching, are completed with a “verification test”, and the credit points corresponding to them are over the 30 ones corresponding to the respective semester.

(2) The teaching activity for the optional is organized only if the minimum number of students enrolled ensures the financial sustainability for the respective activity.

Art. 27

The faculty boards may decide upon conditions/ prerequisites for the subjects, which compel the students to pass one or several subjects in a previous year/semester in order to be able to pass other subjects in a subsequent year/semester. Failure to meet the prerequisites prevents only the participation in the performance assessments, not the attendance to the training program.

Art. 28

(1) The “Specialized internship” is a compulsory subject, covering a period of minimum 3 weeks/ 84 hours for the “Economic sciences” branch and minimum 224 hours for the “Law Sciences” field and is organized during the academic year, or in a compact period at the end of the second semester of the second year of study, for programs in the field of “Economic Sciences”, respectively at the end the second semester of the first year of study, for programs belonging to the field of “Law Sciences”. For the “Sports Sciences and Physical Education” field, the internship comprises 56-84 hours and are unfolded according to the standards in the field.

(2) Higher education institutions are required to ensure a minimum of 75% of the necessary internship places, of which at least 50% outside higher education institutions.

(3) The evaluation of “Specialized internship” takes the form of a colloquium, with grades from 10 to 1, integers, to the subject being allotted a minimum of 3 credit points.

Art. 29

(1) Only the students and the tenured teaching staff of the University, according to the Teaching Staff List approved by the Senate, have access to scheduled teaching activities (courses, seminars, laboratories, projects, etc.). As exception and only based on a written request approved by the Dean and registered in the School’s register at least 48 hours before the date of the respective teaching activity, access may be granted to the classroom to a replacement of the teaching staff member.

(2) In order to assure the quality of the education process and based on solid grounds, the Rector, the Vice Rectors responsible for education, quality management, the Dean and Vice Dean of the respective school, the Head of the specialized department, as well as the tutor of the respective subject have access in the classrooms where teaching activities are carried out (course, seminar, laboratory etc.).

(3) In the context of the teaching activity, the course tutors should always consider the correlation between the scientific content of the course and the syllabus/subject chart. During the first course, course tutors will specify a set of minimal mandatory information, respectively: objectives and contents of the course, recommended bibliography, structure of the projects, research paper and test themes, type of evaluation (written or oral examination, test of skills, colloquium etc.), the ratio between the theoretical and practical assessment of performance, types of assessment test topics, the type of course activity (discourse, using multimedia means of communication, multiplication of the teaching materials, in class and plenary debates with student involvement and other forms), means of communication through the personal page of the student, competences provided, as well as other elements meant to ensure the quality of the activity, according to the national and international standards.

(4) In order to improve the quality of the educational process, course tutors have to ensure the adequate resources for education, before/ after finishing a scheduled teaching activity, by uploading the teaching material on the university platform (Intranet), dedicated to the specific activity. The information procedure requires the electronic uploading of the course material, assessment questions, other teaching materials etc., on the platform.

(5) The teacher's communication with the students, as well as their communication with the teaching staff is to be made exclusively through the institutional e-mail addresses (...@rau.ro), as well as through personal "pages".

(6) At the beginning of each semester, the objectives and descriptors for each subject will be made available, through the same information procedure.

Art. 30

(1) Master studies end with a dissertation examination, which consists of delivering the dissertation paper, in compliance with the Regulations/ Methodology for completion of studies approved by the University Senate on a yearly basis, according to the law.

(2) Passing the dissertation examination, under the terms stipulated at the previous paragraph, will be rewarded with 10 credit points, above the 120 or 60 credit points corresponding to the master cycle of studies.

Art. 45

In the Romanian-American University, the form of assessment, the professional obligations (projects, papers, practical work, monographs, etc.), the grading method and the conditions for passing a certain exam are set by the syllabus, in accordance with internal procedures approved by the University Senate, regulated by law, and they cannot be disputed. The course tutor has the obligation to present to the students the content of the syllabus during the first course and / or seminar, and the assessment criteria, and to make them public by posting them on the student personal page.

Art. 46

(1) The forms of assessing the students' knowledge stipulated in the curriculum are: examination, ongoing assessment and colloquium.

(2) All the examinations are usually carried out on the university campus.

(2.1) As an exception to paragraph (2), in case the examination cannot be carried out face-to-face, it shall take place on the Microsoft Teams@URA Platform.

(2.2) In the circumstances mentioned in paragraph (2.1), the manner in which the examinations are carried out (written or oral) is established, for every subject, by the course holder, including on the basis of consulting the students, and shall be announced to them through selecting the corresponding option on the institutional platform – paginamea.rau.ro. Subsequent to establishing the form of evaluation, it shall take place according to the option selected by the course holder.

Art. 47

(1) The summative assessment and continuous assessment of learning outcomes are the processes by which it is determined whether a student has acquired the necessary knowledge, skills, responsibility and autonomy in a particular field of study, according to MO 7479/27.11.2024

(2) The summative assessment activity, which may be an examination, a colloquium, a test, etc., is carried out at longer intervals, usually at the end of the semester or during the final exams, for each cycle of university studies.

(3) The continuous assessment is a process of monitoring and evaluating student progress through tests, intermediary assessments, projects, individual and/or team assignments, presentations, reports or other forms of assessment of expected learning outcomes, which is necessarily carried out during the semester. The continuous assessment activity is explicitly described in the subject syllabus, including its weighting in the final assessment of the subject.

(4) All assessment activities, both continuous and summative, are carried out on the university campus precincts under the conditions of direct encounter of students with teaching and research staff within the university space, differentiated for the forms of organization of study programs and in relation to the fields of study and study cycles, according to the legislation in force, unless the authorities declare a state of alert/emergency/necessity. These assessments are intended to formally confirm the achievement of the learning outcomes for the subject and program of study in question, against a standard specified in the subject syllabus.

(4.1) As an exception to paragraph (2), in case the examination cannot be carried out face-to-face; it shall take place on the Microsoft Teams@URA Platform.

(4.2) In the circumstances mentioned in paragraph (2.1), the manner in which the examinations are carried out (written or oral) is established, for every subject, by the course holder, including on the basis of consulting the students, and shall be announced to them through selecting the corresponding option on the institutional platform. Subsequent to establishing the form of evaluation, it shall take place according to the option selected by the course holder. In the online assessment process, the oral exams are fully audio-video recorded and archived at School level, in accordance with the legal provisions.

(5) The use of specific electronic, IT and communication resources in continuous assessment and summative assessment activities, both face-to-face and online, shall be carried out in accordance with the following minimum standards:

(a) ensuring a safe and secure evaluation environment, using IT platforms that guarantee the protection of personal data and prevent unauthorized access;

(b) the possibility to check the originality of the work under assessment, using specialized plagiarism detection software systems;

(c) ensuring a logistically efficient evaluation, using IT solutions that allow the evaluation process to run smoothly and efficiently.

(6) In the preparation of projects for examinations, consideration shall be given to ways of checking originality in order to maintain rigorous academic standards by detecting plagiarism and ensuring the authenticity of student work. These methods include, but are not limited to: plagiarism detection, detailed analysis of cited sources, ensuring the authenticity of student work. In situations in which teachers find plagiarism or other forms of violation of academic integrity, measures will be applied in accordance with the legislation in force, the provisions of this set of Regulations, as well as other related institutional regulations covering such issues.

Art. 48

(1) Amendment of a grade by the course tutor:

(a) is possible only in the following situations:

- an application for re-assessment which is approved by the School Dean and which is settled favorably;

(b) is operated in the holographic catalog, with the mention "corrected by me", with the stipulation of the date and signature.

(2) Any grade modification is accompanied by a report addressed for approval to the Rector of the University, in order to be operated in the electronic catalog.

Art. 49

(1) Exceptionally, for duly justified reasons, a student may request in writing to the Dean, showing the reasons and attaching the justifying documents, the reschedule of the assessment at a date other than the one scheduled for that discipline. The rescheduling is necessarily made, without exception, during the same assessment session, for the same discipline tutor and at a date at which the tutor has another assessment scheduled.

(2) The request for rescheduling is approved by the Dean, with the prior approval of the tutor, only in the condition that, on the date when the student has asked for a reassessment, the tutor has other evaluations scheduled at the level of a specialization organized within the university.

(3) The request for rescheduling registered by the faculty secretariat, no later than the date of the scheduled evaluation, becomes an annex to the catalog. The tutor shall record "absent" in the catalog on the scheduled date of the assessment and then, under the "reschedule" section, the grade obtained by the student who has received the approval of rescheduling, mentioning the date on which the exam was rescheduled. The tutor will record the mark obtained by the student in the electronic catalog, which he/ she will sign and deliver to the secretariat, together with the written paper of the student and the holographic catalog.

(4) The student who received approval for a reschedule will sign, at the end of the evaluation, the attendance list, with the stipulation of the date of reschedule.

Art. 50

The academic success of a student during a study program is determined by verifying the acquisition of the expected learning outcomes through exam-type evaluations and through test papers during the semester. In the Romanian-American University, the evaluation process of the competences acquired by students is based on the principle of evaluating students during the semester using unique criteria approved by the University Senate, which are part of the quality management and are mandatory for all course holders, as follows:

- the attendance criterion, namely the mandatory attendance at the scheduled courses;
- the performance criterion, which involves the elaboration of papers, projects, practical studies, monographs, etc. and passing the scheduled course and seminar tests according to the syllabuses/ syllabus spreadsheets.

Art. 51

(1) Students who meet the attendance and performance criteria and obtain a minimum grade of 8 (or equivalent score), resulting from the evaluation of the active/participatory attendance in classes, seminars, laboratories, etc., the evaluation of activities such as writing papers, projects, practical studies, monographs, test papers and so on, as well as from the result obtained in the semester test, which must be scheduled during the last two weeks of teaching activity of the semester, in which the subject is provided, and which must be taken at the respective course; thus students pass the subject based on the grades obtained in in-semester and end-semester evaluation.

(2) Only students who cumulatively meet the following requirements may take the semester test:

- (a) They have fully paid the financial obligations;

(b) They have no outstanding debts towards the university within Erasmus+ mobility projects or other projects/ programs

(4) By way of exception to the provisions of paragraph (3), if the evaluation cannot be performed face-to-face, it will take place on the Microsoft Teams@URA Platform, and the semester test can be attended only by the students who are connected, audio-video, with the teaching staff, and show their student card with attached photo or an identity card with a photo using/by the web camera, before the beginning of the evaluation. The teaching staff will send the form “Nominal table with grades obtained in the semester test” to the School Secretariat, via the e-mail address of the respective school.

(5) The course holder will make the audio-video recording of the evaluation through the Microsoft Teams@URA Platform and will ensure the audio-video surveillance of the students, together with the teacher who conducts the practice/seminar activities or, as the case may be, with the teacher appointed by the School management for this purpose.

Art. 52

(1) The course holder will write the grades by hand in the transcript on the same day of the evaluation or in maximum 48 hours from the date of the evaluation, within the exam session.

The recording of grades in the holographic transcript of grades will be done by the end of the exam session at the latest.

Art. 53

For students who have not cumulatively met the criteria according to art. 51 paragraph (1), the final result, both during the ordinary sessions, and during the re-evaluations, will be determined in relation to the grade obtained in the evaluation.

Art. 54

(1) The application of the attendance and performance criteria in evaluating the students, the passing based on the result in the semester test and on the activity during the semester as well as the compliance with the method of calculating the final grade in accordance with art. 51 and art. 53 are mandatory in the Romanian-American University.

(2) Failure to respect the students' right to be evaluated during the semester, in compliance with the provisions of this Regulations approved by the University Senate, entails that the tutor is liable of punishment according to the proposal of the Dean of the School organizing the major/study program, approved by the School Council and/or the University Senate.

(3) The results of the evaluation can be cancelled by the School Dean when it is proven that they were obtained fraudulently or in breach of the provisions of the Code of Ethics and Academic Deontology or of this Regulations and other institutional regulations related to ensuring the quality of the educational process. The Dean may decide on the reorganization of the exam/evaluation, in accordance with the law.

Art. 55

(2) Evaluations must be scheduled and held between 8:00 a.m. and 8:00 p.m., whole number intervals and cannot last more than 2 hours and less than 1 hour, except for oral exams and those organized by a study program in partnership with professional associations or similar entities, which specifically impose that the duration of certain evaluations must be different.

(3) Course tutors are required to formulate topics for evaluation which allow students to complete their work within the time allocated for the evaluation.

(4) It is recommended that the written examination not consist exclusively of a grid-test; the grid test can be combined with other topics that require writing and checking terminology and domain-specific reasoning, or/ and problem solving.

(5) If there are several course holders for a particular subject, in order to ensure unitary evaluations, the School Council may require standardized exam topics.

(6) In exceptional situations, which are well-justified, students may report in writing to the School Dean any potential breaches of academic ethics and deontology noted during the evaluation. In such situations, the Dean can organize a Commission for the reevaluation of the papers or, as the case may be, will notify the Ethics Committee.

Art. 62

(1) For the evaluation of the written test, the papers are checked in the University campus (it is forbidden to take them out of the University premises) then they are handed in to the secretary office of the school, based on a written report, together with the transcript of grades (the holographic and the electronic one, printed and signed after entering the grades in the database) and the students' attendance list within 72 hours from the date of the evaluation and are archived 15 days after the completion of the session. The secretary responsible for the respective academic year must check if the teaching staff handed in all documents mentioned above. An exception to the 72-hour deadline is made when observing it limits the students' right to enroll in final exams for master's studies organized by the University during the period approved by the Senate. In these cases, the term is reduced to the level where the students' rights, mentioned previously, are not violated.

(1.1) By way of exception to the provisions in par. (1), if the evaluation cannot be conducted face-to-face, concerning the written exam, the answers provided by the students are evaluated according to the instructions mentioned in the User Guide for online teaching and examination activities, written tests/exams. (3) The grades must be written in the holographic transcript of grades, both in numbers and letters, signed by the course holder and the professor responsible for the practical activities or by the professor assigned by the School Council as mentioned in the header of the transcript of grades, who participated in the evaluation.

(4) The grades will be entered into the database by the course holder or by the professor responsible for the practical activities or if the respective subject was not provided for in the curriculum with a seminar (i.e. a laboratory, a practical activity, etc.), by the professor assigned by the School Council.

(5) The grades entered in the database must be checked by the course holder, who will confirm their accuracy by signature. The document completed in this way (hereinafter “electronic transcript of grades”) must be printed, signed by the course holder and the professor who entered the grades in the database and must be attached to the holographic transcript of grades. The holographically signed electronic transcript of grades becomes an appendix to the holographic transcript of grades according to the “Instruction on the evaluation of competences”.

(6) The detection of non-conformities in the holographic/ electronic transcript of grades entails disciplinary sanctions, both of the course holder and of the secretary of the year, upon the proposal of the Dean of the School who organizes the respective major/study program and with the approval of the School Council and /or the Senate.

(7) Failure to attend the evaluation must be recorded in the Transcript of grades with the mention "absent".

(9) The responsibility regarding the accuracy of the grades and entries under the column “grades” in the holographic and electronic transcript of grades, belongs exclusively to the course holder, with the exception of the evaluations equalized by the Head of Department and the Dean.

(10) The Chief Secretary of the Faculty, the secretary responsible for the respective academic year and the Dean are responsible for the accuracy of the nominal composition of the groups/ groups of study and the entries regarding the: school, field of study, major, year of study, form of education, group, subject, course holder, the teaching staff present at the evaluation, the date, time and room (it is not the case if the evaluation is not done face to face) in which each evaluation is scheduled (including re-evaluations/resits, equivalence examinations, etc.).

(11) Students have the obligation to check, on their personal web page, the grades, after each examination. Errors must be reported to the School Dean, in writing, within 10 working days from the end of the session of exams/reevaluation.

The change of the student's grade in the database will be performed by a person assigned especially for this purpose by the Rector of the University.
