

Finance, Banking, Insurances

Description of the MSc. program

The objectives of the MSc. on Finance, Banking, Insurances include thorough knowledge of the specialization from the Bachelor's program, the development of the skills and specific competences of MSc. students, so that they finish their professional training and thus meet the demands of business opportunities and have a successful career in Finance and Banking or Insurance.

Who may apply for this MSc. program?

Graduate students with a Bachelor's degree, no matter what their main field or specialization are.

Why should I apply for this MSc?

The modern strategies and tools for financial policy analysis within companies, domestic and international financial and banking specific markets, the efficient management of the financial resources funds, the regulation and banking supervision, international standards in financial reporting, or insurances and reinsurances are the main focus of this MSc. program. The graduate students of this program of study will become specialists with solid knowledge in Finances and Banking and will be able to study in the only private University that is a partner of the Academica program created by the National Bank of Romania, the Romanian Academy and the higher education environment.

How do I take the admission examination?

The admission relies on a contest, namely an essay, considering the grade awarded by the evaluation committee (50%) and the average of Bachelor's examination grade (50%). The essay will be created according to the submission requirements. The evaluation criteria will include:

- originality;
- scientific substantiation;
- coherence of the presentation.

Possible topics for admission essays:

1. Government Expenditure in Romania. International Comparison
2. The General Theory of Taxation. The Fiscal System in Romania
3. The Coordinates of Fiscal Policy within the European Union
4. The Fiscal Policy and Its Impact on the Activity of Economic Entities
5. The Financial Structure of Enterprises. Selection Criteria of Financing Sources

6. Investment Decision-Making. Financial Criteria Engaged in the Assessment of Investment Projects
7. The Financial Analysis of Enterprises. The Study on Financial Balance and Enterprise Performance
8. Banks, the Key Element of Credit Institutions
9. The Credit as Main Banking Product
10. Modern Banking Products
11. Credit Guarantees
12. The Supervision of Insurance Markets
13. Globalization and Internationalization in Insurances
14. The Analysis of the Insurance Market in Romania
15. Life Insurance – Accomplishments and Perspectives. The graduate students will be entitled to hold high positions in financial and banking institutions, insurance companies, public institutions or research institutes.

